HAPPY HOLIDAYS!

Happy belated Hanukkah! Merry Christmas! Happy New Year! May your gaming be ever interesting and your list of Victories long! (Sort of sound like a Klingon, eh?)

Our second game of SILVERTON begins this time, taking over the pages occupied by the all too soon departed "Sgt Preston". In CIRCUS MAXIMUS meanwhile, Flippus has a forced win in two, so we'll be starting up an advanced game of KREMLIN in February or March. Those signed up should confirm their interest and select a faction name. I hope to be able to print the initial set-up next time.

Time to start thinking about the 1999 Con season. PlayersCon, Origins, or GenCon?

STANDBY ALERT:

MAGIC REALM: Fern & Xyla

Interested parties should send in orders for each position they are interested in. If the present player again fails to submit orders on time, a random drawing will be held.

BORIS'S BULLETIN BOARD

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH: "The fact is, that civilization requires slaves. The Greeks were quite right there. Unless there are slaves to do the ugly, horrible, uninteresting work, culture and contemplation become almost impossible. Human slavery is wrong, insecure, and demoralizing. On mechanical slavery, on the slavery of the machine, the future of the world depends." --Oscar Wilde

The 3rd Chattanooga Rail Gaming Challenge will be held on January 15-17, 1999 at the Best Western Heritage Inn in Chattanooga, TN. There is a lot of information about the convention posted at <http://www.home.chattanooga.net/~derrick>. In brief, $25 in advance, $30 at the door. Rooms at $44/night (single or double) if reserved ere 1 Jan. 18XX, crayon games, more. As it's MLK weekend, I won't have class that Monday, so might make it. Any possible roomies?

BOOS & KUDOS

This month's Madame Bolduc Press Excellence Award (& free issue) goes to the poet in "Boris XIII".

This month's Ms Ner Super-Sudsy Bomb is lobbed at the author of the "Real man" classified for "a poor attitude towards women!" The Mighty One has spoken!

France - World: I'll continue to help all of you from everybody.

France - Russia = Wow! You are on a roll.

France - Italy = Can I be of assistance?

France - Austria = Watch out for the Tsar. He is getting rather rotund from swallowing up so many supply centers.

France - Germany = The Tsar is on your doorstep.

Germany to England-I'm sorry, it was all Austria's fault-he made me do it.

KLENDATHU: No clear leader has emerged in the first year, although England with 5 units so early should make France and Germany wary. There are hints of an Austro-Russian collaboration, else why is there not a Russian A in BUD in replay of 1849? Could an A/I/R be aimed at Wormtongue?

Germany - England: I hope we can keep things friendly. There's no reason to get in each other's way.

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

Constantinople Constitution: Sultan Ali Wormtongue promised his full support to His Majesty King Anderson in his program to free the Slavs. "The Austrian/German alliance is a threat to us all, and we appreciate the King's willingness to stand firm against the spread of such tyranny."

Evening Times (London): The German peoples have had a long and troubled history with the Low Countries. One can only begin to guess at the reasons -- better cheese, simpler language -- but why digress? England's military leaders announced this afternoon that by Monday morning royal troops would already have been transported from Scapa Flow to Ostend, Belgium. His Majesty's hopes that the loaned troops will secure peace in the Low Countries and can help our allies, the French, in the defence of their homeland. In the meantime, the University at Oxford has created open enrollment in their Dutch classes in order to ...

Wine Is Fine

ERRATA: Chuck pointed out the rule near the bottom of p 21 that states that when a bankruptcy occurs, if a company still owes loans, its stock is valued at $10 less per loan. The next sentence says that a bankrupt player can win, which tells me that John's stock still counts. LPS would drop to D80 in OR 3.2. I tend to agree with Chuck's opinion that John must sell a share of LPS (dropping the price to E75), then go bankrupt on the redemption call on the third loan, the stock ending at 45. Thus:

FINAL STATUS

Player	CH	WW	DF	MF	DC	JB
Cash	83	20	47	325	67	0
Priv RR	--	40	50	--	--	--
Stock	150	240	240	270	300	90
Total	$205	$300	$337	$595	$367	$90

On the other hand, if he can't sell the stock due to the redemption call, he finishes with $150.

Mark Frueh is still the winner

DC: -What a surprise! At least I ended up with 2nd place. Congratulations to Mark for a flashy finish. Sale of the private railroad came at just the right time. I am pleased with the performance of the WR, despite a setback on obtaining loans, shows what good management can do.

DF: Bankruptcy. Don't you hate when that happens.

We Begin!

The Cast

#1 Dan Farrow
#4 Mike Fisher

#2 Paul Zieske
#5 Jim Holliday

#3 Don Chinnery
#6 Bill Wordelmann

We'll be playing the Basic game to $50,000. House Rules follow. Due next time are Prospecting and Surveying orders for Turn 1.

AVAILABLE CLAIMS:

#9 Silverton Au
#34 Dolores Lumber
The Deck

#20 Leadville Ag
#43 Coalville C
PAX A1-A6

#22 Telluride Ag
#54 Bowle C

HOUSE RULES

We'll be using the same system as Randy Cox's Cogniscenti, although I'll be using an abbreviated notation. I'll be publishing a map where player's routes will be indicated by placing their player # in the price box. We'll probably use a grid like Randy, rather than relabeling the map like Mike Quist did. That having been said, here are our special rules:

1. All actions in a phase are simultaneous. Conditional orders are not allowed within a phase.
2. If you prospect and win a claim, you automatically buy it (Exception: If you prospect the Deck, you retain right of denial). This allows me to replenish the available claims without fear of compromise and it discourages challenging the down-and-out to keep them that way.

3. Any trades, deliveries, etc. must be noted on all involved players' orders for that turn, otherwise the trade/delivery is voided.
 4. All monies will be public. $50,000 wins the game.
 5. The Turn Sequence: We end our pbrn turns after 1st Phase III with an exception: any prospected deck cards are then known. At that point, you indicate on your orders 1) whether you stake the claim; 2) which claims to operate; 3) any trades; 4) all deliveries including conditional deliveries based on what you net on operations rolls; 5) and which track to survey and claim to prospect next turn (track construction is automatic once surveyed). OBVIOUSLY, order #5 is all you'll send in for the first turn.
- All players start with $6,000 and the S/P status given on p8 of the Rules. Due next time is which track to survey (identify by cost, length, destination) and which claim to prospect.

Germany to Austria-Heh, heh, just a little joke there. Get it. I was just funnin' him, really.
Germany to Russia-What's this, you think beer will wash down the Turkey stuck in your throat?
Germany to Italy and Turkey-Hey guys, nice to know ya, sorry to see you have to go so soon. God.
I'm sorry, nww, somebody help me.

Italy to France- Call me let's talk.

RUSSIA-ALL: Failure of the postal system led to a lack of Russian press last turn. It is believed that this was due to the expanse of the extended Russian Empire. It takes time for the mail from Smyrna to reach Norway.

*Russia-France: Here, I'll show you how.

VIENNA: Archduke Wormtongue publically chastised the French government today in a press conference regarding our Italian neighbors. "Just when it looked like the French monarchy might have been able to help out the Italians they ran off and went and declared war on another peaceful neighbor!! Well who needs them?! The government of Austria will do all in its power to help the people of Italy to resist oppression and to flourish. We are currently sending in military personnel and hardware to drive out the residual French plunderers and will begin restore order to the ravaged peninsula as soon as possible," he said.

PRESS:

New Assyria ruler admits to mis-calculation! In his zeal to increase his country's trading power, and while attempting to rid his area of the two interloping cities at Ankara & Gordium, and at some of the misguided among his own population, the new rule has caused an epidemic that has also hit hard at two of his own cities, as well as some of his neighbors..... The thought was good, but the "execution" (sic) may not have worked quite the way he wanted.....

YOUR CARDS ARE:

---"Boris XIII" (continued from p 2)

The missives were sent to the allies with care

In hopes that Tsar Nicholas would be a nice bear;

Gardner and Trent are a peaceful duet making nicely niceley

While their SCs they get. Italy is quiet, he may yet be priceley.

The spring moves went well--beyond belief

Not a unit did bounce or come to grief.

Now there is an army in Galicia and a fleet in Black Sea

Oh, the options are pleasant for the Tsar that I see.

Now Budapest, Ankara or Vienna; then Trieste and Greece

Oh let us dream...Constantinople, and Smyrna we will fleece.

As dry leaves that before the wild hurricane fly,

When they meet with an obstacle, mount to the sky--

Oh all this skulduggery let us eschew

For the only SC's that the tsar wants are two.

Let us go for Rumania and Sweden for now.

And keep the Peace of the Season somehow.

It was heard as he left, a call of merry cheer

A Merry Christmas to All and A Happy New Year.

The Bottom Line

This is BORIS THE SPIDER, a 'zine dedicated to the play of multiplayer games. BORIS is published the first or second Sunday of the month by Paul & Meg Bolduc, 203 Devon Ct, Ft Walton Beach, FL 32547-3110 and currently has a subscription price of $10.50 for 12 issues in hardcopy ($12 in Canada, and $18 overseas) or $1 by E-mail. If phoning, expect to be greeted by an answering machine. If we're here, not engaged in an epic computer battle or enthralled in baseball, and recognize your voice, you may get to talk to a real human, so don't hang up upon hearing our recorded message (it changes every power outage).
